OUR LADY OF FLORIDA
SPIRITUAL CENTER
Retreat Programs
2010-2011

Of the three theological virtues – Faith, Hope and Love – St Paul writes: “The greatest of these is love.” (1 Corinthians 13:13) References to love, both divine and human, are generously found throughout scripture.

In the first letter of John there is the beautiful reflection about God's love and where the words for this season's theme are found: Love casts out Fear. (1 John 4:18)

Divine Love does cast out the fears and anxieties of our lives. God makes every effort to let us know we are not alone. We also need the grace to trust, to have faith and to hope.

Ours is a fragile world. Our lives are finite. We are realizing that what we humans are able to construct may not be really life giving and sustaining. The world does not provide what is essential to our lives – God does. The world will not ally our fears. That is God's work. And God's work is Love.

Give yourself the gift of a retreat, invite a family member, ask a friend. This is the moment – the opportunity – to be renewed – to come and rest in God's Love. This is the time to deepen your faith, so that your faith is strengthened for the journey.
